

Technique Detection Accuracy in Bobwhites (n=679)

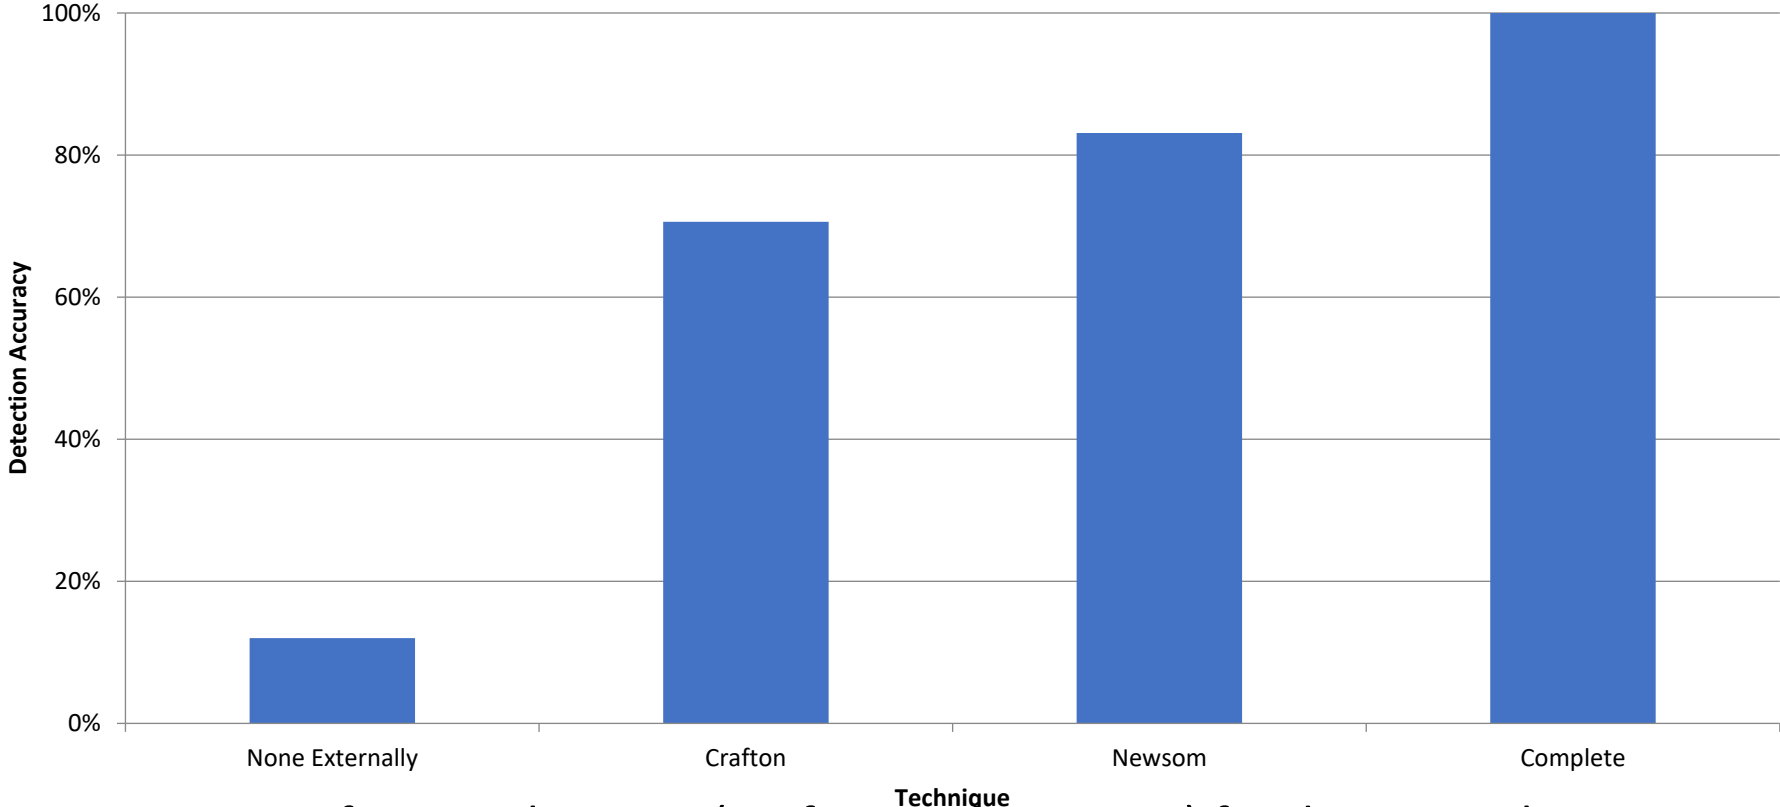

Figure 8. Accuracy of two techniques (Crafton and Newsom) for detecting the presence of eyeworms in the field compared to complete necropsy of the eyes and associated tissues. “None externally” means no worms were detected in infected birds after conducting the Crafton and Newsom Techniques.